OPENS FRIDAY 1/24

Gimme Shelter

When "based on a true story" appears on a screen, it's not unreasonable to expect a uniquely inspiring or riveting tale. This indie effort is neither. Apple (Vanessa Hudgens) is a snarly, pregnant 16-year-old with a druggie mom (Rosario Dawson, yikes!) and an absentee dad. A chaplain delivers her to an all-girls foster home, where she learns how to nurture. Apple's issues run deep, yet the movie implies that all her drama goes poof thanks to a few months in a stable environment. As any Teen Mom viewer can attest, that's a false positive.

LUPITA NYONG'O Red Carpet Superstar

STYLE WATCH—Sers love Lupita Nyong'o, 30, who just got a best supporting actress Oscar nod for 12 Years a Slave — and has captivated on the red carpet this awards season.

Nyong'o

Q: You're everywhere! Exhausted? Of course I get tired, but for the most part, it's been an adventure!

Q: Is it fun to pick out gowns? I've never dressed up this much. I'm working with [designers] — and giving my own input too.

Q: Who have you bonded with? I met Meryl Streep! And Sandra Bullock was so sweet. It's amazing to gush to someone about their work — and have them gush back!

DEMI LOVATO

I Won't Pull a Beyoncé!

NO SIMON COWELL? NO PROBLEM! Demi Lovato, 21, tells Us about life after leaving her mentor chair on X Factor.

Q: Bored during all this downtime? No way! I'm focused on my next CD.

Q: Will you surprise release it? I couldn't pull that off. Beyoncé is the only one in the world who can.

Q: Pal Kelly Rowland didn't slip? I called her when it dropped and said, "You bitch!" She said, "I didn't know!"

Q: Any new hair colors in the works? Who knows? I'm so impulsive with it, any day all of my hair will fall out!

"He's always been cool to me," Lovato says of Cowell.
